PART ONE

Please respond to each question individually and return with your application.

1. Has your participation in LCC/LYE impacted your life outside of your musical development? Explain your viewpoint regarding any value the organization brings to a singer's social and personal growth.
2. It is said that "character" is what a person does when nobody is watching. Discuss ways in which you have contributed to the leadership, musicality, or esprit d'camp, possibly in quiet ways or behind the scenes, to strengthen the group.
3. Compare and contrast your abilities and attitudes toward choral music today versus as a prospective member of the LCC/LYE. How have you changed musically?
4. What are your plans after graduation? How do you see music, particularly vocal music, playing a role in your adult life?
5. Discuss how you have assisted, or what you have accomplished, on behalf of the LCC/LYE in ways beyond participating in rehearsals and performing at the concerts.

PART TWO

You will be required to perform a short audition before a small review board. Your selection maybe comprised of a vocal or instrumental presentation. The length of your presentation should be at least 2 minutes and no longer than 5 minutes.

PART THREE

Finally, at the time of your scheduled musical audition and a short interview with the review board will also take place.

Deadline for the application is April 2, 2010 (Part One). Applicant interviews and auditions will take place during the week of April 26th to April 30th.

The Scholarship will be presented at the spring concert.
